Who will be picking up your dog?

I acknowledge my dog may have specific genetic makeup that lends itself to possible issues specific to their breed. If they arise at any point while staying at Haven they have my permission to treat at a vet and or specialist. Haven will make every effort to contact the owner first.

To the best of my knowledge I do not know of any medical issues with my dog and there has been no indication of any upper respiratory issues in the last 14 days.

My dog is current on flea/tick preventative.

My dog is current on heartworm preventative.

NIGHT TIME TREATS DISCLAIMER:

Rawhides and other "chewies" can pose a risk of choking or blockage. It is enough of a concern that we recommend not bringing these types of treats to dogs while overnighting and not under staff supervision. If you still want to provide your dog these night time treats while in our care we ask that you check the box below as your acknowledgement of personal responsibility.

I understand the risk of unsupervised chew treats for my dog and will accept any responsibility.

BEDDING DISCLAIMER:

Every dog boarding at Haven the Dog Spot is provided with an elevated cot and mat/filled bed. If damage should occur during the boarding period there will be a $20 charge per item damaged.

I give permission for my dog to be provided both a cot and stuffed mat for bedtime. I understand I will be responsible for any damage incurred to either of these two items at the cost of $20 per item damaged.

I give permission for my dog to be provided a cot ONLY.

No, I decline any bedding and request my dog be provided with PERSONAL ITEMS ONLY.
